The Road Home

"Therefore, since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also lay aside every encumbrance and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God." Hebrews 12:1-2

"Therefore when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, 'It is finished!' And He bowed His head and gave up His spirit." John 19:30

It was night. The sky was dark, and the road looked so long before me. I had a decision to make. Would I keep going? Would I go forward and try to make it home, or would I quit, turn around, or look for another way? I was tired, exhausted really, and the day had been a long one. The thought of going forward seemed more than I could do, much less wanted to do.

Since the introduction of sin in the garden, following the choice to eat the fruit and the introduction of sin and death, the world has gone dark, the road difficult, and exhaustingly filled with tears along the way. God gave us grace through the Law. However, the Law was given to teach us a lesson. We could not be free, not make it on the road of life, not reach home, be at peace in a right relationship with God on our own. No, the darkness of sin surrounded, infected, and wounded us. Sin put us to death and kept us from making it home. Jesus came to walk the road we could not walk for ourselves. He came to run the race, that we simply could not run, and we certainly couldn't finish on our own. He came to make us victorious in Him!

It amazes me that Jesus went all the way to cross for me. He went all the way to the cross for you. He said to the Father, "Not My will but Yours be done." He took all our sin, being sinless Himself, He offered Himself up as the One, Only, and True Passover Lamb. He took all my sin, all your sin, and all the sin of the world, past, present, and future upon Himself. Not once did He say, "This is too much for Me!" Not once did He turn around, stop short in His tracks, or quit. No, He resolutely, intentionally, lovingly fulfilled the prophecies of Scripture and gave Himself up willingly to suffer death on the cross for you and me! He finished the path, the course, the race before Him. He crossed the finish line victoriously, and He declared what? "It is finished!" The grip of sin's chains has been broken. Death has been defeated!

As I exhaustedly looked up that night, not being able to make it one more moment, I saw a light. I realized home was just ahead. Rest, peace, and life were just ahead of me inside the light of my home. Jesus is the Light of the World. He invites us on the road of life to look up to Him, see the forgiveness, accept His grace, and power of the cross to break the chains of sin. He invites us to not get stuck in the graves of the world which threaten us with boulders/stones in front of them, that we cannot move on our own. No, come out into the light and rest at home in the presence of God, knowing that Jesus has defeated the grave and rolled away the stone. Take off the grave clothes and be clothed in the righteousness, holiness, and completeness of Christ. Yes, "It is finished!" Let us live, move, and worship at home in God's presence every day of our lives, as we walk in the Light and enjoy the victory of the resurrection and life, which Jesus alone could give and gives to us! By grace and faith, let us hear Jesus say to us, "Welcome home!"

BIBLE QUIZ

In the first chapter of the Third Letter of John, the writer says, "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the ____." Since John was an elderly man, he thought of all Christians of any age as his children. But what word is missing? Choose one of the following:

- A. Spirit
- B. truth
- C. way
- D. light

Answer: B (See The Third Letter of John Chapter 1)

Dear Wesley Chapel Church family,
Don and I would like to thank everyone for the surprise fruit basket. Have a blessed day.

~ Don & June Bruner

Just thinking about your kindness brings a smile. Thank you so much. The basket was just the little “joy” we needed! Thank you for all you do.

~ Dave & Linda Henry

Dear friends,
Thank you so much for your outpouring of generosity with all the donations given to Birthright. It is definitely a blessing to mothers and their new babies. Thank you so much.

~ Birthright of Somerset

For those, like you, who give, support, and donate to the Somerset Salvation Army Service Unit—whatever the amount or type of donation—this generosity and graciousness remains anonymous to those who receive the blessings, yet your gifts do not go unnoticed.

For our God in Heaven knows what blessings you have selflessly bestowed on those less fortunate. He sees that you are doing His work here on earth, and, for that, may you be abundantly blessed with joy, love, and happiness.

Thank you and God bless you,
Gale Purbaugh & Melissa Wright

Even though you didn't have to do it, you did it anyway, and it was much appreciated. Thank you for all the time. All the pillow cases will go to the homeless.

There are many things which a person can do alone, but being a Christian is not one of them. The Christian life is, above all things, a state of union with Christ, and of union of his followers with one another. Love of the brethren is inseparable from love of God. Resentment toward any human being cannot exist in the same heart with love to God. The personal relationship to Christ can only be realized when one has "come to himself" as a member of His Body, the Christian fellowship.

Morning breaks upon the tomb

Morning breaks upon the tomb,
 Jesus scatters all its gloom.
 Day of triumph through the skies—
 See the glorious Saviour rise.
 Christians! Dry your flowing tears,
 Chase those unbelieving fears;
 Look on his deserted grave,
 Doubt no more His power to save.
 Ye who are of death afraid,
 Triumph in the scattered shade:
 Drive your anxious cares away,
 See the place where Jesus lay.

~William Bengo Collyer

AGAPE KID'S MINISTRY

Our Agape group finished up the year with their last lesson being held on Wednesday, March 19th. Since last September, they learned how to grow with and through God—not only did the kids grow physically but they also grew spiritually. The group had one last blast with a bowling party—see pictures to the right. A very special thank you to Mark and Angie Millin for sharing God's word with our little ones. This ministry is truly a blessing to the children and their families within our church and community. We are sad to say that Agape has finished up for now, but stay tuned so you can join us when we resume in September.

The Romans sent a message; God sent one, too

The rulers of the Roman Empire wanted everyone under their power to understand clearly that it would be very costly to try to overthrow their government. They conceived the idea of crucifixion as a way of sending an unforgettable message to all people under their control. Death on a cross would be a slow, excruciatingly painful death. The cross would be put in a very public place so as many as possible would get the message: Don't even think of defying Roman rule!

That is why Christ was crucified on Golgotha hill close to a busy road where no passerby could miss the shocking scene. Christ was guilty of nothing. Yet his enemies hated him so much that they told Pilate, Rome's representative in Jerusalem, that Jesus was a danger to Roman rule. Christ's enemies said to Pilate, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend; everyone who makes himself a king sets himself against Caesar" (John 19:12). Pilate caved in to the clamor of the crowd and allowed Jesus to be crucified.

But those who saw to it that Jesus suffered death on the cross did not know that God had a message to send as well. God victoriously raised Christ from the dead! God touched the precious body of his Son and infused it with life, glorious, dynamic life, life in all of its fullness.

God turned the cross, the executioner's tool of death, into a dramatic symbol of victory. The empty cross and the empty tomb, along with the resurrected body of Christ, reveal God's victory over the worst deed humans might do — the assassination of the Holy.

That is why we put crosses everywhere: boldly, proudly, joyously, triumphantly. It is why we glory in the cross always. It stands eternally "towering o'er the wrecks of time" (John Bowring).

After the Resurrection, Jesus' friend, Peter, explained God's message to all of Christ's enemies with these bold and certain words: "This Jesus, you crucified and killed .... But God raised him up, having loosed the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it .... This Jesus God raised up, and of that we are all witnesses .... Therefore know assuredly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified" (Acts 2:23-24; 32, 36). That is what Easter is all about. All praise to the living Lord!

He listened, and he gave.....

When the pastor said that it was time to collect the tithes and offerings, one little boy took off his tie and placed it on the plate as it came by. "What are you doing?" asked his mother. "I'm doing what the minister told us to do, giving our ties and offerings," he proudly answered.

Say “hello” to the tree

Pastor Kenneth Chafin tells of being in beautiful east Texas one lovely April Sunday. Wild flowers, azaleas, redbud and dogwood trees had put on their glorious spring colors. Yet Dr. Chafin had not taken time to fully absorb the spectacular scene before him.

Basically, he was tired from the previous week which had been stressful. On this first day of the new week, he was mentally preparing himself to preach in a large church and thinking of his schedule to follow.

He and his wife decided to walk to the church along with their 4-year-old daughter, Nancy.

Nancy's short little legs made it difficult for her to keep pace with her parents. Furthermore, her attention was captured by the blooming flowers and trees all about her. Her eyes came to focus on one spectacular dogwood tree in particular. She stopped to study its lovely blossoms. Then she decided the tree needed to be addressed. “Hi, tree!” she said with a friendly smile. Dr. Chafin said that word of acknowledgment to the tree made him ashamed of himself. “I had been in such a hurry to get to church,” he later wrote, “that I had missed my Creator’s sermon growing by the sidewalk.” Perhaps this spring we need to not only take time “to smell the roses” but to thank God often for the loveliness of creation. And, if no one is around, we might even say “Hi” to a tree or two.

When it comes to getting things clean, we think of soap! But when things are being shipped clear around the world the FDA puts guidelines on items entering a foreign country. Soap is an item that has begun to cause issues with Operation Christmas Child. With soap being packed in shoeboxes in years prior, it was guided to make sure it wasn't medicated or antibacterial. Last year over 3 million shoeboxes were held up because of soap and the FDA regulations. Many discussions came about, and Samaritan's Purse and Operation Christmas child have now moved soap to the Do NOT Pack list. With that being said, we are still able to pack fun, full, and engaging shoeboxes. If you have packed soap in the past, take time to pray for guidance on what can be used to take the place of soap to show God's love in a tangible way. There are no guidelines on when to start packing, so don't wait and start now!
